

Imagine...

Imagine ... that you are contributing to the mission to become the most innovative bank and that you can make this difference! With you there, in the Innohub (the innovation department within Rabobank) we make this possible. Together, we work on the program Innovaid designed to guide Rabobank in their innovations. With your expertise in agile, design thinking, lean startup, project management, user experience (UX) and / or change management, you deliver a valuable contribution to make this possible.

You help to create impact by:

- Drafting and executing marketing activities.
- Maintaining materials (online platform and physical development of both design and contents of the teaching materials).
- Publish communication and Social Media expressions.
- Recruiting, selecting and supervising (individual and group) employees.
- Knowledge of agile work and lean startup methodology.
- Organizing workshops and maintaining contacts with, among others, employees, stakeholders, suppliers, etc.)

With each other.

Working together is the way we work. Our team Innovaid joins forces to make innovation possible for Rabobank.

How we do that? By designing and providing education toolkits, programs and workshops to employees we help them generating ideas and prepare them for implementation by training on innovation skills.

With your talents

That customer orientation, entrepreneurship, innovative capacity and result orientation are indispensable for this function within the Innovaid team is logical. In addition to those competencies, it is important that you recognize the following as well:

- Completed HBO / Bachelor or WO / Master with relevant work experience in the area of organizing / facilitating.
- Experience and/or vivid interest for innovation methods such as business model canvas, lean startup, design thinking and so on.
- Very good oral and written expression skills.

Growing a better world together

You are already aware that Rabobank is a financial services provider for 7.1 million customers in 40 countries. But did you know that we aim to contribute to real change with our 'Growing a better world together' mission? Innovaid team does so in countless ways, such as:

- Becoming the most innovative bank.
- Empowering entrepreneurs to grow. T
- The leading bank in the food and agri sector worldwide.

Do you want this too?

Do you want to become the ideal version of yourself? We would love to help you achieve this by focusing firmly on your growth, development, and investing in an environment where you keep learning every day. We give you the space to innovate and initiate. In this way, we offer you numerous opportunities to grow and help you exceed your expectations, to do the right thing exceptionally well, and to therefore grow as a professional.
